THE STORY BEHIND THE BRAND

Pen Legacy is more than just a publishing company. Founded in 2009 by author, playwright, and life coach Charron Monaye, Pen Legacy offers ghostwriting, publishing, script writing, co-writing, coaching and blog writing services. Additionally, Monaye works as a life coach. With a body of work spanning more than 20 years, Monaye sought to help aspiring authors to find their voices speak their truth, and walk in their calling.

“Everyone who is born is given a calling on their life, a purpose to fulfill, a passion to enjoy, and love to share with others,” Monaye said. “Owning your life is essential to truly knowing WHO you are, WHERE you are going, and WHY you make certain decisions that ultimately affect your lifestyle and dreams.”

Monaye is a former content and contributing writer for CNN IReport. She has also written five books, including her latest Stop Asking for Permission and Start Giving Notice, and penned two award-winning stage plays, including “Why Can’t We Be Friends,” which won Best Real Life Drama Stage Play at the Playwright Awards in Queens, NY.

She made the decision to expand her talents to helping first-time-authors with Pen Legacy, offering coaching and motivational content through books, scripts and writing services. To date, she has co-written books with debut authors Jaguar Wright and Deborah Rose, and has received social media exposure from people like actress Meagan Good, singer/songwriter Syleena Johnson, music manager and Berkeley College professor Dr. Syleecia Thompson, actor Dennis L.A. White, and actress Tamara Bass. Monaye is devoted to assisting others in reaching their greatest potential.

“Far too often we settle for opportunities, journeys, and situations that truly are not destined for us, and then we wonder why we are not successful and find ourselves in a losing battle,” she said. “The power of “losing to win” lies in your ability to trust yourself, in being comfortable with standing alone, and in being fearless when it comes to pissing off some people.”

Monaye is a mother of two sons. She holds a B.A. in Political Science, an MA in Public Administration, and a certificate in Paralegal Studies and Life Coaching. She is a member of Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Epsilon Rho Zeta Chapter; the Order of Eastern Star, Ruth Chapter #66 (PHA~ PA); and The Visionaries Entrepreneur Network.

YOU WILL NEVER BE ABLE TO ARRIVE AT YOUR FINAL DESTINATION IN LIFE IF YOU DON'T FIRST OWN THE RIGHT TO MAKE THE DECISIONS TO GET YOU THERE. WORKING PAYCHECK TO PAYCHECK IS SUSTAINABLE, BUT WORKING AND NOT PAYING ATTENTION TO PAYDAY IS MUCH LESS STRESSFUL, AND SO MUCH MORE REWARDING. WHEN YOU ALLOW YOURSELF THE OPPORTUNITY TO EXPLORE LIFE RATHER THAN JUST SIMPLY LIVING IT, YOU GET THE MOST OUT OF THE TIME YOU LIVED.
